

What, no picture?

The sound wasn't exactly crystal clear, but Bobby McNeil, 6, of Owen Sound, was still fascinated by a 1920 vintage three-tube radio receiver demonstrated by Bill Hardie of Tiverton. The radio was one of many in a display by the Georgian Bay Amateur Radio Club during Southampton's Heritage Days on the weekend. Other activities included sleigh rides, hockey tournaments, a bonspiel and dances. (Photo by Shaw)
